NOTICE

The Judicial Commission was established in 1999 to inquire every four years into the adequacy of the salaries and other amounts payable to federally appointed judges under the Judges Act and into the adequacy of judges' benefits generally. Under the provisions of the Act, the present Commission is to report to the Minister of Justice by June 1, 2012.

The Commission invites parties wishing to comment on matters within the Commission's mandate (judicial salaries, allowances, annuities, perquisites, etc.) to forward their written submissions to the Commission by January 16, 2012 at the following e-mail address: info@quadcom.gc.ca, in either official language. Written submissions will be posted on the Commission's Web site at www.quadcom.gc.ca. Parties wishing to make comments on the submissions must submit their comments, preferably in electronic format, by January 30, 2012. Paper versions of submissions and comments will also be accepted.

In addition, any party intending to file a written submission with the Commission may also request an opportunity to make an oral presentation at a public hearing. The public hearings are scheduled for February 20, 2012 in Ottawa, and February 27, 2012 in Montréal. The Commission must be notified by January 30, 2012 of the party's desire to appear at an oral hearing.

Copies of the Commission's mandate and other relevant documents are available on the Commission's Web site at www.quadcom.gc.ca or through the Executive Director of the Commission at the address noted below.
